

MARY EDGETON
title examiner

Mary Edgeton manages the title examination process for Guaranty's clients. Edgeton searches and reviews public records to identify existing rights and interests in a property. She then gathers all related documents and significant information, and determines any required resolution strategies with Guaranty's closing officer.

With over twenty five years of experience in the title insurance industry, the value of Edgeton's depth of knowledge and experience is vast. Guaranty's clients enter into every transaction with the confidence of knowing the thorough nature of Edgeton's work ensures a successful closing.
